SELECTION PROCESS

The applicant's high school counselor or school officials from Dallas County Community Colleges Foundation will screen the initial application. The most qualified applicants will be notified by letter and may be asked to interview with the scholarship selection committee. Upon completion of the final selection, the DCCCD Foundation will send an announcement to the recipient. Scholarships will be awarded twice a year, once in the spring and once in the fall.

Applications for the fall semester must be submitted by April 12. Applications for the spring semester must be submitted by October 30. The DCCCD Foundation will provide Construction Education Foundation (CEF) with all scholarship applications meeting minimum requirements. The Construction Education Foundation (CEF) or approved selection committee will review applications and recommendations, interview finalists, select and inform the DCCCD Foundation of scholarship recipients.

In the event a recipient should refuse to accept a scholarship; an offer will be extended to an alternate.

When applicants are selected, recipients must complete and have on file at their college Financial Aid Office the following:

Construction Education Foundation = 1 Year College Course Schedule approved degree plan.

An applicant who is awarded a Jerry Junkins Construction Management Scholarship must maintain a 2.2 GPA and complete six credit hours for spring and fall semesters. Additional credit may be taken during the summer sessions.

Scholarship recipients failing to maintain the stated requirements will be placed on scholarship eligibility probation for one semester. Should the recipient fail to demonstrate attainment of all initial requirements at the end of the probationary period he/she will become permanently ineligible to continue in the Jerry Junkins Construction Management scholarship program.
